

1 the situation was all about and to see if there was any
2 possibility of a reconciliation here and I wasn't able to
3 get him to do anything to reconcile with Mr. Rice and...

4 Q. How about vice versa?

5 A. Well, I already explained to Mr. Rice that I felt if
6 he could reach some amicable agreement, the same way as
7 I told Mr. Zoerb and I would suggest that that was the
8 way he should go. I suggested, too...

9 Q. Did you make a specific suggestion as to where the 10 lines should go?

11 (OBJECTED TO BY ATTORNEY NIKIRK)

12 A. Not where the lines should go but I suggested that they 13 both meet...

14 (OBJECTED TO BY ATTORNEY NIKIRK)

15 Q. Go ahead.

16 A. I suggested that they both decide on their common
17 line and have a surveyor survey it for them and then go
18 prepare the necessary legal documents to strengthen their 19 position.

20 Q. But, that didn't work, right?

21 A. Well, I didn't hear any comeback from either party.

22 Q. Are you familiar with a third plat of this property,
23 you've testified to the Weidner plat and also the Brown
24 plat. Are you familiar with one done by Mr. Rothenhoeffer?

25 A. I've seen it. I can't recall where I've seen it now
26 but I have seen it.

27 Q. Does it also vary?

28 A. Yes, my memory seems to tell me it varies in this line.
